The key behind King's success

Keeping KHS running full blast is quite hard even for Mr. Stewart. But because he has applied himself for only the needs of King he has brought us much success. Even though most times he's very busy he's never too busy to speak or carry on conversation with a student. He feels that the student and the teacher are his business. On the busiest days he always finds time to visit classrooms and talk over problems with a teacher. This in itself is the "Key to King Success."

Mr. Bill Stewart

Mr. Stewart takes time out to talk with Cheryl Driscoll.

Mr. Stewart assists Sandy Rimbey and Karen Ryals.

Paper work is also required of Mr. Stewart.

Parents often confer with our principal.

A school is not complete without a . . .

A new face has taken over the position of assistant principal this year. His ever-smiling and helpful attitude toward the student and the faculty has made his position worthwhile. Schedules of all school events are kept by Mr. Lobo; he participates in nearly all of them. He assists the principal in every way he can and this keeps him busier than ever. Mr. Lobo also aids in discipline in the absence of Mr. Ballas. We at King are proud to have Mr. Lobo as Assistant Principal.

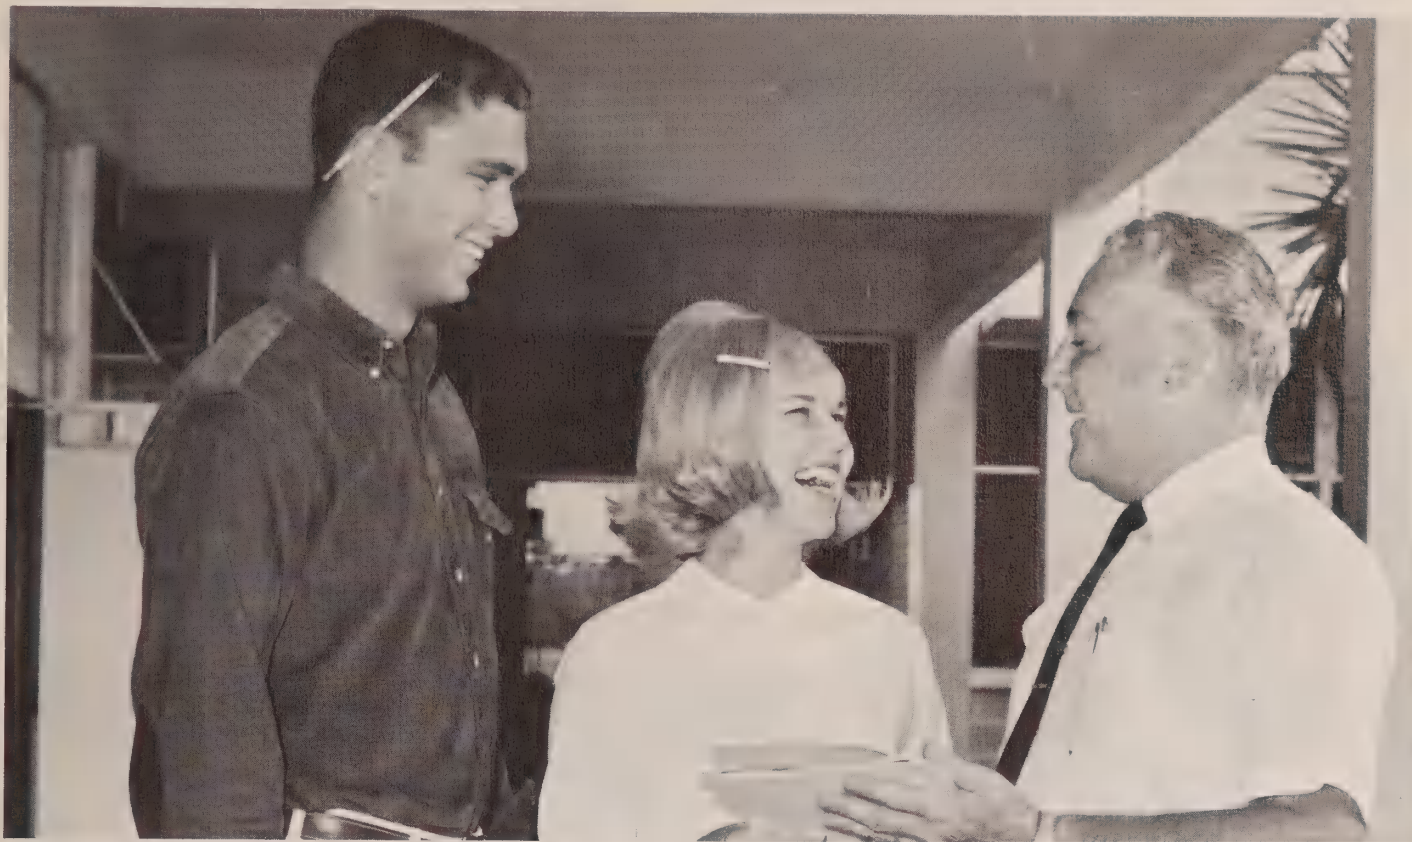

Mr. Anthony Lobo

Mr. Lobo looks on at the pep rally.

Mr. Lobo attends the assemblies.

Paulette Folsom and Mark Thompson talk with Mr. Lobo between classes.

Telephone calls keep Mr. Lobo busy.

A perfect solution to students problems

The association between the students and the deans is great simply because the deans develop a thorough interest in the personal problems of the student. Discipline on the part of the student takes thought and patience on the part of the deans.

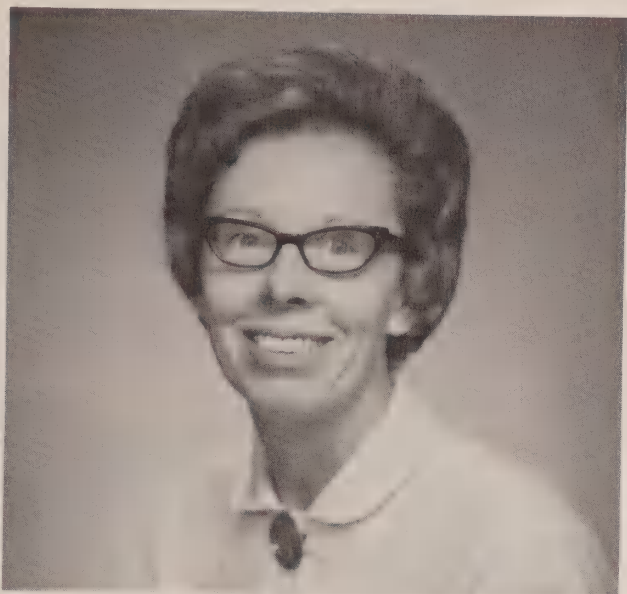

Mr. Edward Ballas

Mr. Ballas goes over absentees with Regina Thompson.

Mr. Ballas listens to a student's problem.

Mrs. Guess Simmons

Joanne Miglore assists the deans.

Mrs. Simmons assists our new IBM secretary and a student assistant.

The backbone of a school relies on . . .

The school is kept running smoothly by the efforts of various secretaries. An endless number of jobs are done by these experienced personnel. The responsibility of the main office is to handle grade cards after IBM has completed them, meet the requests of teachers and sponsors of students, handle all mail and student records. The secretarial pool of the deans' office is carried on in the process of absentees, call-ins, and student problems. The books at King High School are kept with all accounts and in detail by the bookkeeper. Individual needs of the students are met by the bookstore.

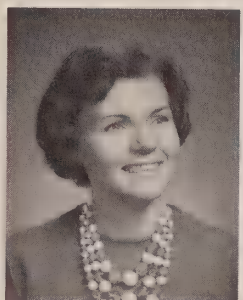

Mrs. Ogle works diligently in the main office.

Mrs. Peters stamps library books.

A positive answer to a King high student's future

Counselors are given many major responsibilities relating to educational and vocational guidance. Each student has a record on file in the guidance office. Counselors are in charge of standardized testing which includes the giving of the PSAT, Senior Placement, the Teaching and Nursing Exams. Students having problems are often seen in conference with their counselor. A follow-up program is done on every student that graduates from King in order to keep in touch with him. It also helps to aid the student in getting into a career after he has completed his education.

Mrs. Rozman answers another telephone call.

Mr. Richard Carlson

Mrs. Lucille Craver

Mrs. May Rawls

Mrs. Elizabeth Rozman

Mr. Carlson assists Terry Budd with her future college plans.

Mrs. Craver explains tests score to a student.

Mrs. Rawls works out a student's schedule.

Mrs. Rozman gives Wayne Green an admit to get back in class.

The cornerstone of learning

The background of poetry and grammar are taught in our English classes at King. English is the subject behind all others because in order to read, spell, and interpret, one must have a thorough understanding of English.

World Lit. is a new addition to the many phases of English offered in our school. It is the history of past and present literature throughout the world. It creates a spirit of originality within a student as being a part of such greatness.

The door to a new world

Most times business changes the pace from teaching and introduces a different kind of world than the student has ever known before. Here at King they help the student understand what to expect in the world of business. They teach sixteen different phases of business including, Data Processing, Business Organization and Management, VOE II, Guidance, VOE Clerical, VOE Secretarial, Salesmanships and a host of other courses as equally important.

A view to another outlook of life

Whether one is trying to follow the complexity of organisms or viewing onion skin through a microscope, he is furthering his knowledge of the scientific aspects of life. In our biology classes the teachers are rotating classes to expose the student to a more specialized phase of the subject matter. Approximately twenty-four experiments are done in our chemistry classes. For the individual who is capable and interested, Physics, Physiology and Biology II are offered.

The ties of a closer world

Spanish, Latin, and French are taught at King. These courses make it easier for the student to communicate with other nationalities. They not only teach one to speak the language but they familiarize the student with the countries' background and culture. This helps the student at King to understand the different nations in the world.

Miss Rivers Baxter

Mr. Enrique Diaz

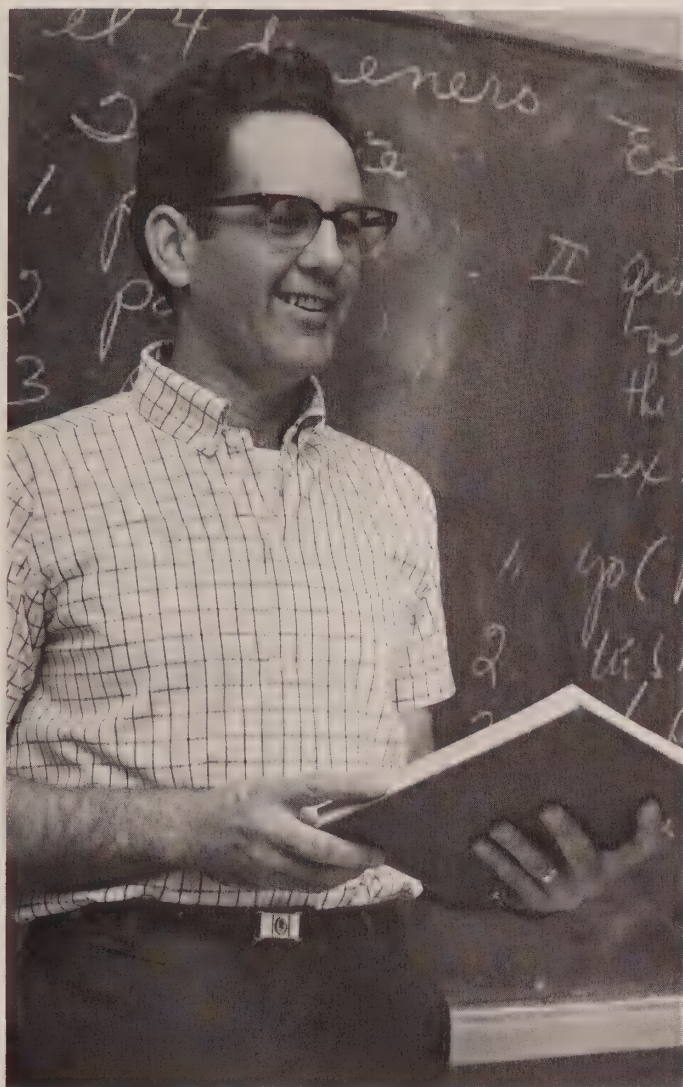

Mrs. Dorothy McLean

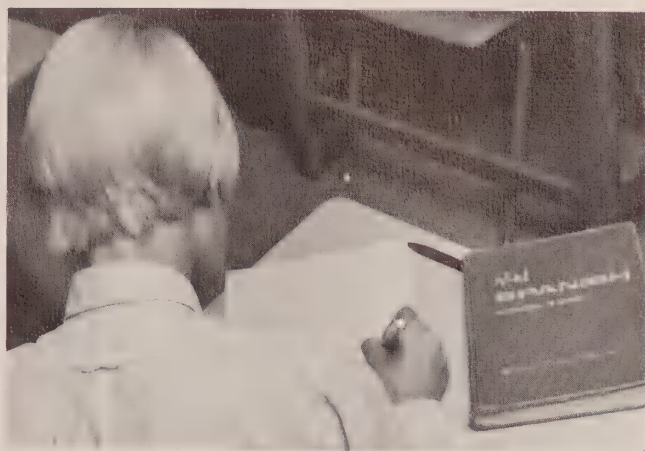

Mrs. Mary Moore

Spanish II requires a student to get his work done.

Mr. Diaz gives Spanish translation.

Susan Green works on a Spanish assignment.

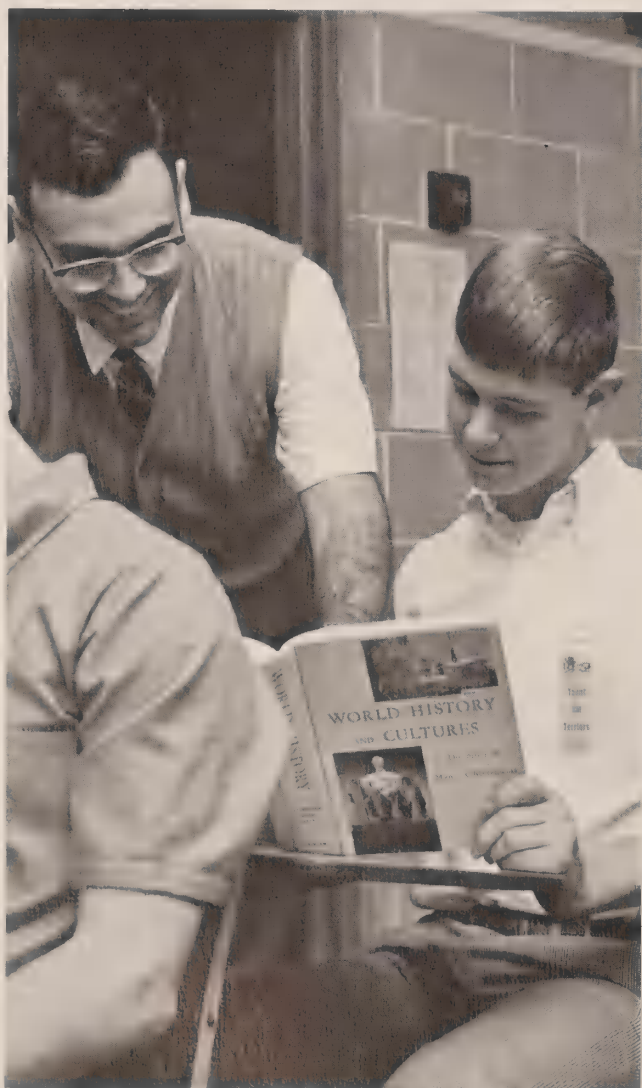

Students listen to language tapes.

Sondra Pahl and Barbara Cadow show their interest in Spain.

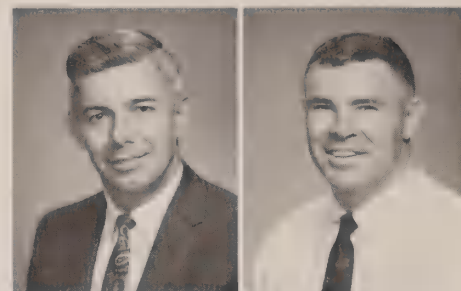

A study of the past and present

Facts of the past and present are brought from the pages of time to make an impression upon the student in our History classes. Students try to determine why this or that event has occurred. This is one good reason for studying the pages of time. The subject is of importance because it explains the economic strengths and weaknesses of the U.S. and other countries.

Preparing for a future home

A variety of courses are offered at KHS to help future homemakers with problems they will soon be facing. The Foods and Nutrition class enables a girl to learn how to prepare nutritious well-planned meals. Clothing and Textiles start or furthers a girl's knowledge of clothing construction and enables a girl to become acquainted with the many types of fabrics. Color, style and furniture arrangement are a few of the things taught in the Housing and Home Furnishing classes. Child Development prepares a girl for the things she needs to know about being a wife, mother and homemaker. Each teacher is required to make home-visits each year and the girls have home-projects to work on. FHA is another outlet of home-economics.

Mrs. Lois Kyle

Mrs. Jean Vaughn

Mrs. Kyle assists in the cutting of this fabric.

Sandy Smith measures her pattern pieces.

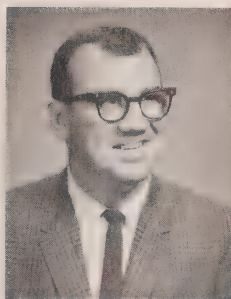

Alida Tennant tastes Cheryl Edwards cooking.

A greater effort taken on by students after school

A DCT student adds up his earnings.

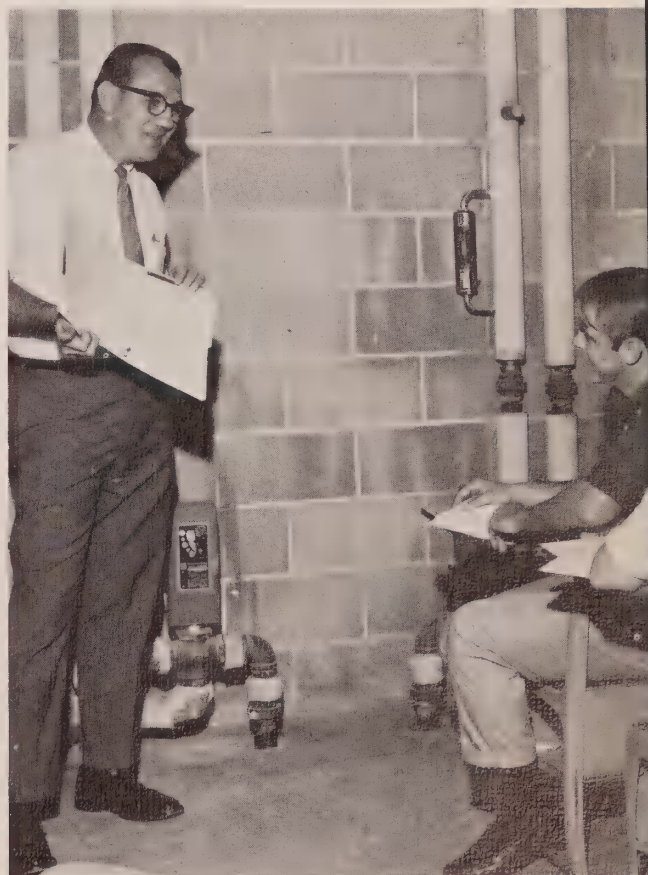

Mr. Oliver Jones is the sponsor of the Diversified Co-operative Education program. To be eligible for the DCT program one must have the desire to work and have scholastic ability. Only part of the number that applies are accepted. These students must be at school by 7:30 a.m. to begin classes in order to earn their academic requirements for graduation. After classes are over they are placed with a business firm for on the job training in order to become a competent employee.

Mr. Oliver Jones

Harmony is the after effect of enjoyment

A delight to many music fans is the band and chorus directed by Mr. Bob Scott. Many hours are spent in practicing for halftime shows by the band and concerts by the chorus.

Tommy Russell and Morris Wright sing another tune.

Mr. Robert Scott

Mr. Scott directs our band.

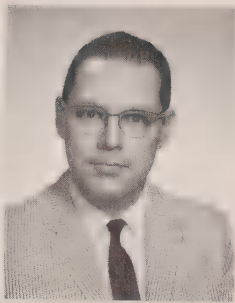

Cathy Fridelle and Darlene Perkins play their parts.

Robert Nyegard concentrates on his painting.

A colorful look of life

Ideas are created by the minds of many people but only part of this number symbolizes their ideas through art. The art department at King offers courses in basic art and also the art of reasoning.

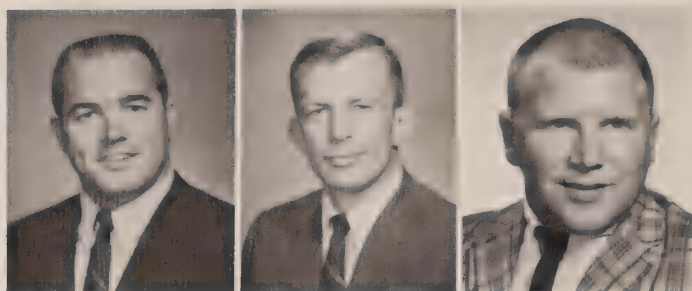

Mr. Jim Broadie

A guide to more knowledge

Mrs. Jane Linsey

Mrs. Mary Jane Martinez

Because of the demanding jobs librarians have to do, King now has three librarians. With an approximate number of eight books per student, the library contains all information needed by the student. Our librarians not only aid students but they order books, handle filmstrips and projectors, and letter, catalog and classify books. They also provide a career file and do copywork.

Mrs. Mary Mulrennen

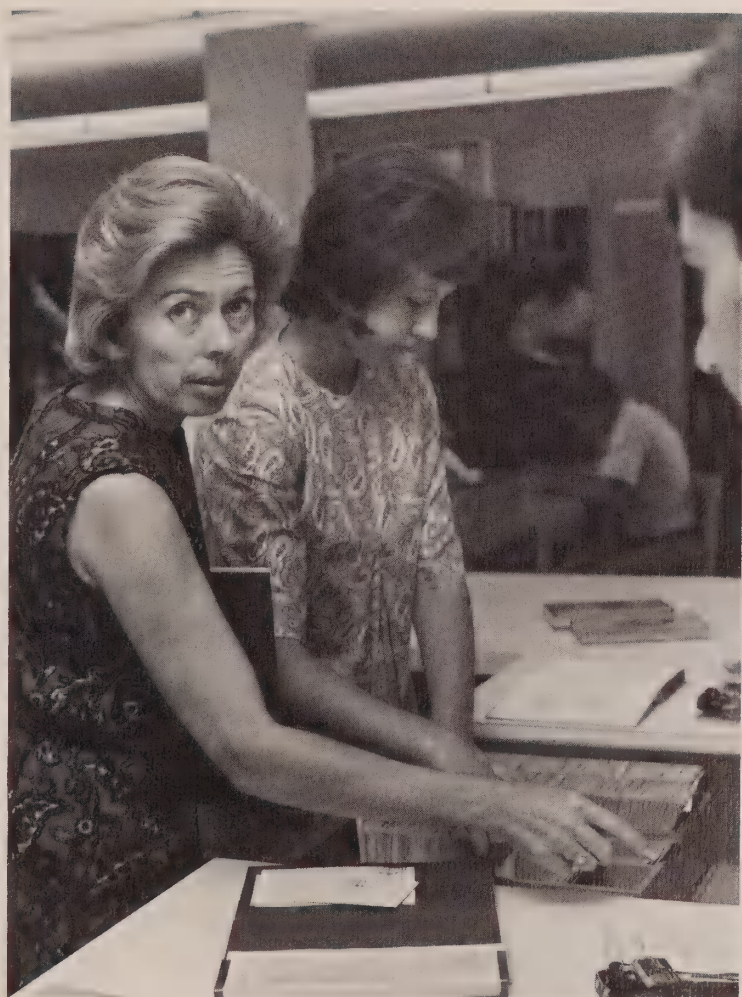

Don Cooper and Suze Williams find many interesting items in the library.

Students enjoy the use of the library.

Donna Coe reads a report for class.

Mrs. Linsey, our new librarian, assists a student.

An aid for cuts and bruises

Our aches and pains would go unattended if it weren't for this lady. Out of a student body of more than 2,200; many are given special aid by this Gray Lady.

Mrs. Helen Burke

Patty Bass aids Mary Cheatwood

Gene Zimmerman waits for Mrs. Burke to check his temperature.

Mrs. Johnson looks over other accomplishments.

Mrs. Johnson talks with PTSA members.

Mr. Stewart checks with Mrs. Woodside.

An aid to King

The men in the Booster Club are a great help to our economy at King. At our football and basketball games, our boosters are johnny-on-the-spot to serve refreshments and manage the parking lot. During the Christmas holidays our mens organization sold Christmas trees. This helped boost the spirits of many people.

The success behind our band

The Band Parents work diligently to help Mr. Scott in every way they can. They go on trips with the band whenever chaperons are needed. They also see to it that the band members get water during a performance and afterwards. If it were not for the aid of these parents who give their time and energy to the students in the King High School band, the school would need that type of help greatly.

Organizations

President's round table

The President's Round Table is the interclub organization at King. It consists of the presidents of the various clubs and classes, heads of the cheerleaders and lionettes, and editors of the publications. Its primary function is to co-ordinate the activities of the school's organizations.

Various club presidents attend the president's roundtable meeting to create better interclub relationships.

Gary Ramos, president of Student Council, presides over the president's round table meetings.

Student council

Under the leadership of Gary Ramos, the King High Student Council sought to represent the school and serve the students. The Council executed many projects this year such as selling beat tags and sponsoring a birthday party for our exchange student. Tradition was also upheld as the Council sponsored a Quiet Day and Bermuda Day.

Varsity cheerleaders

Promoting school spirit is the main objective of the cheerleaders. This year they planned and presented the pep rallies, sold voodoo dolls, and held a bonfire before the Chamberlain game. Again, the King cheerleaders earned the honor of the trophy, "Girls behind the Boys," for predicting the outcome of the football season.

Marching kings

Carrying a superior rating again this year, our marching Kings, under the leadership of Mr. Robert Scott, entertained King fans and visiting schools with magnificent half-time shows. In addition to the many hours spent after school practicing, the band found time to organize a pep band which played at lunch time during the pep assemblies. This year the band sold candy to help carry the charges of sending our marching Kings to the state contest.

King 32 Middleton 19

King opened its season with one of the most important games in the history of Hillsborough County. It was the first time an integrated school had played an all Negro school. Middleton controlled the ball during the first half, but then the Lions showed the Tigers who was the King of the beasts. We obtained the lead during the third quarter and held it for the remainder of the game.

King 20 Lakeland 15

Both teams were hit pretty hard with penalties, but Ralph Cooper and Tom Owen sank the Dreadnaughts with their running and passing ability.

King 6 Plant 0

November seventeenth is a date to remember. It was the date of the biggest upset in the Western Conference. Plant, unscored on in six previous games, was kept scoreless by the mighty King defense. The offense managed to score one touchdown to end in a 6—0 shut-out over Plant.

King 68 Chamberlain 20

This was the second year in a row that King has walked all over the ONCE mighty Chiefs. If you take twenty points from both scores, it makes it 48—0, just one point under last year's massacre. If this keeps up, in forty-eight years, Chamberlain just might tie us.

KING HIGH GRADS: You Could Be King or Queen At FLORIDA COLLEGE!

That's right! We do have special Kings and Queens—as most colleges do—everyone can be a "King" or "Queen" in his or her special area of college work here.

Florida College is a private fully accredited—and successful—liberal arts college which offers almost all areas of a sound college program. Straight academics. No terminal or vocational work. Some remedial courses. Several new buildings and excellent living facilities on campus for men and women!

Good programs in sports, and majors in most areas.

Write or call today!

Plan to attend this fall.

To the most wonderful girl that I have ever known. And the first girl that I've gone steady with. Although we've had our doubts and disagreements, I think we've had fun. I hope in the future that we can have as much fun as in the past. I'm glad I fail Biology last year. Because if I didn't well I wouldn't be writing this in your book. But look what happened.

I couldn't be more happy ~~I~~ than I've been since I met you. If you can ~~hang~~ hang with me, I know I stand being with you. I know I can because it's well be hard to lose you now. ²⁷⁰ So if you want to keep me for a long time, just stay as sweet & pretty, and understanding as you've been with me. And I'll love you forever & forever.

Love Ya
Mike
"68"

P.S. I'm ~~not~~ glad you understanding about my getting my hair cut. And all the other things that have made you mad at me, or dislike me before we made up, I think that's the best thing after a disagreement is to make-up and forgive each other, And I love you!

Good Luck Always!
Cookie

Shirley You're a real doll with a doll
of a personality.
Stay as sweet as you are always Best of Luck

Boy! I can't ever think of anything to write but once I get started I ramble on and on! Sorry to be such a pill but I am and always will be.

Boy this is so neat you can almost read it. You know you're not in any of my classes except P.E. and we have different teachers.

Maybe next year will be in more of each other's (Boy does that make no sense).

I don't know of any phrase more used than "be in a class together next year!"

I'm rambling on again. Oh well

May Flowers grow in your garden!

Love Debbie (Fred)

Shirley, real been real to know ya. great. Next year will maybe some classes you'll have some I wish you the together. I wish you the best of luck next year

Cathy V.B.

To Shirley
A very nice girl who
I like as a good friend.
I hope I see you next year and after that too good luck in the future.
your friend
Joe D.

Shirley, I was kicked with you & Cheryl this year. I do hope I see you both more next year. Do plan to keep us busy, and I'll try to think up something myself.
 Had fun at the beach. Love you both. Dad

To a real sweet girl would have liked to get to know better.
 I'll better luck next year and I hope we have the same English class again next year. Love ya,
 Larry Rushing

Wish you were in my room. I'd love to see you & have a lot of fun and with class next year.

Shirley,

You're a very sweet and cute girl and a swell friend of mine and may you always be my friend. Good luck with Mike and I hope you have fun this summer. I'm sure glad I know you (for 5 years) because we have had lots of fun. (Be careful)

Love Ya "70"

Shirley
Well, Now that I'm going to sign your yearbook
I can't think of anything to say. To start, you've really been nice + his year, and you've made geom. a lot easier + to bear.
Have fun this summer, and be careful when you drive as I get my licence pretty soon. See you next year. (I hope!)

To a real sweet & energetic girl in Best of Luck in Geom.
"68".
Love, Bonnie

Shirley,
Boy! The classes we had together this year are the ones no one could forget if they tried. You really are a real sweet person.
Just stay that way + you'll never have to worry about friends or Mike. Try and be good this summer & have fun. Best of Luck always. all through life.
Love ya, Darlene RMA
"67-68".

Shirley,
Will you all just starting the best three years of school there is.
I know you will have as much fun as I did.
You are a very sweet and nice girl. Just be careful with my little brother. I know you thought I was some sort of nut well I am know I sometimes embarrassed you but that's me. So please be good and have a lot of fun your next two years of school.
Loads of luck and lots of lovin'
Iwen (Mike's sis)

To Shirley a very sweet modern, and delicate girl whom I think the world of.
all the luck you need Kandy

Shirley,
You're a real nice girl
that I've known since KENZ.
May you have the best of luck.
Terry Shirley

Shirley,
I'm so glad I got to know you this year. We've had a lot of fun this year and I hope we continue to be friends.
I'll see you as a junior (hopefully) next year, so have fun this summer and try to be good. See you at church Best of luck always,

Love you,

Barbara '68'
